5.08.080 Certificate of compliance.

A. Every person engaged in the business of peddling or soliciting must receive a certificate of compliance from the chief of police.

B. Every such person shall identify himself at the police department by signing and filling out an identification blank which shall contain the following information:

1. Name;
2. Age;
3. Permanent address, if any;
4. Local temporary address, if any; and
5. General description of person in such further detail as the police department may require, including fingerprints.

C. The identification blank shall be accompanied by a fee of ten dollars to defray the cost of conducting an investigation of the contents of the identification form which shall be conducted by the police department. Any individual, firm or entity exempt from payment of any business license fees under any provisions of this chapter shall also be exempt from payment of the fees provided by this subsection. This fee is in addition to any business license tax imposed by the town for nonexempt entities.

D. Upon making such applications and identification and complying with the provisions of this chapter, it shall be the duty of the police department to issue to such person a certificate showing that such person has complied with the provisions of this section. Such person shall thereafter retain such certificate and have the same upon his person at all times while engaged in any of the activities mentioned in this section, and it shall be the duty of such person to display the same to any party from whom he solicits any business upon request therefor.

E. Any person failing to comply with the provisions of this chapter is subject to arrest and prosecution for a misdemeanor.

F. If there is any evidence of misrepresentation made in any statement or application, or if the investigation of an applicant discloses that the granting of the license applied for may be detrimental to the public peace, morals, health, safety or general welfare, or that the applicant has been convicted of any violation of law involving moral turpitude, the chief of police shall recommend that the license be denied. The town manager shall accept or deny, upon the recommendation of the chief of police, any application for a license as described in the provisions of this section. (Ord. 30 § 8, 1985)
